

8 questions to help us plan for the future:

1. What key accomplishments over the past year do we need to celebrate?
2. What unexpected blessings do we need to be thankful for?
3. What mistakes did we make this past year that we never want to repeat?
4. What disappointments or setbacks did we experience this past year that were beyond our control?
5. What are some key areas we need to start working on to improve our outcomes?
6. What are some potential pitfalls or problems that we need to be prepared for?
7. What are some timely opportunities we are uniquely positioned to pursue in the coming year?
8. If we benefited from a large unexpected financial gain of over $1 million this year, how could we best use those funds?